 Republican Printing & Publishing Company, at the southwest corner of Pennsylvania Avenue and Thirtieth street at 90 per annum in advance, or 25 cents per month, delivered by carrier.
 Address: NATIONAL REPUBLICAN,
 Washington, D. C.

Mr. N. B. FUGITT is Agent for the receipt of Advertisements and subscriptions for this Paper, as well as for the Collection of Accounts.

Mr. D. H. McCLELLAND is also authorized to solicit Advertisements.

All communications designed for publication should be brief, plain, and only such on the part of the paper. Communications accompanied by the name of the author are not solicited, and will neither be returned nor published. Retained manuscripts will not be returned. The editorial staff of the National Republican during the session of Congress will preside at the session of the House of Representatives.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1877.

Holiday Printing.

This office has an extensive Job Printing Establishment, at which all kinds of holiday job printing can be executed in the very best style, on short notice, and on the most favorable terms. Give it a trial.

It is more dishonorable for this country to pay its debts in honest money than not to pay at all, then let us seek dishonor by our honesty.

The New York press are roasting Mr.
 Hewitt over a slow fire for attempting to get up a war with Mexico—or rather for fomenting the elements of a rupture between the two countries.

The savings-banks of the State of New York are rapidly dissolving under the decrees of the courts. The Yorkville, Book-land, of Nyack, Abington Square, Bond Street, and German are among the latest to go into dissolution.

It is said that Gen. SHERMAN is opposed to the acquisition of Mexico as American territory, and thinks it a pity that when Gen. Scott held Mexico he or Gen. FILLMORE did not take possession of the government, enlisting the American troops then in Mexico in the service of that country, and thus provide a stable government.

The Post seems to be dissatisfied with the style in which the NATIONAL REPUB-LICAN is being edited. There is no accounting for tastes, as the man said when he kissed his cow. If we have any one thing to congratulate THE REPUBLICAN on more than another it is that its style of editorials is not that of the Post. We could have had that style if we preferred it.

A BILL was introduced into the Senate yesterday to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to grant a registry for a foreign-built vessel, to be used by the WOODRUFF scientific expedition, which will be substantially, when put in commission, a floating college. The bill has been referred to the Committee on Commerce, and, as no substitute is asked, it is to be hoped that it will be speedily passed to a law.

The appointment of FITZSIMMONS to the marshaling of Georgia, a rank Democrat, has encouraged the Democrats of Virginia to seek to control the Federal patronage of that State. They propose that Democrats shall be appointed to succeed Lewis, half-brother of Senator LEWIS, United States District Attorney, and RAMSDELL, United States Marshal. The door has been opened to this thing, and the same hand that opened must close it at pleasure.

No MAN can now stand up in the face of the gold-king and declare for the honest silver dollar of our fathers without having the dirt of Wall street and its chieftains hurled at him. The Hon. STANLEY MAT-THEWS is now being slightly besmeared from that quarter. He or any other man who is in favor of honest money, and the dethroning of the gold-king, can afford this temporary infliction. The dirty crusade will soon be over.

The English are shrewd strategists. The mayor of Liverpool tendered a hearty welcome to Mr. WELSH, our Minister to England, on his arrival there, and immediately administered to that high-tariff Pennsylvanian a free-trade pill. Mr. WELSH very pertinently informed the mayor that England did not consider that he was in the mode of procedure.
 This is eminently diplomatic. Neither made any allusion to the $5,000,000 that the Government is to pay for the luxury growing out of the fishery question.

Elsewhere will be found the sad announcement of the death last evening of COL. TIMOTHY LUCY, Water Registrar and Superintendent of the Washington Asylum.
 He had been seriously ill of neuralgia of the brain for several days, but was pronounced better yesterday morning, and his sudden death last night was therefore a surprise to his grief-stricken friends. Col. LUCY, a native of New York, came to the field during the late war with one of the regiments of that State and served until its close, having carved for himself a name on the scroll of military fame. Since the close of the war he has resided in Washington. During most of this period he has filled various positions of public trust with marked fidelity and ability. He has always been a conspicuous and active member of the Grand Army of the Republic since its organization, and in this capacity he was the attached and firm friend of the Union soldier. Perhaps no other man among us had more friends in the class.
 His administration of the Washington Asylum has been exceptionally humane and successful. He was a faithful and true member of his party, a sound Republican, and a true and unselfish friend. Though possessed of positive opinions, which he was ever ready to defend, he never allowed his political or religious views to interfere with or mar his personal friendships. He was clothed with that charity for the opinions of others that he claimed for them for his own. He leaves a widow, who will receive the condolence of a wide circle of attached friends in her irreparable loss.

Civil-Service Reform.

The protracted struggle over the Federal appointments in the city of New York ended yesterday evening by the rejection of ROOSE-VELL and PRINCE, and the confirmation of MERRITT. In this the triumph of Senator CONKLING is complete. He took the ground that the removal of ARTHUR and CORNELL, who are capable and faithful officers, before their term of service had expired, was an open and flagrant violation of the principles and rules of a national and healthy civil service. The case of Mr.
 MERRITT was different. The term of service of Mr. SHARPE had expired, and the nomination of Mr. MERRITT, whose appointment is one fit to be made, was not antago-nized. That proceeding was within the province of a just and becoming civil service in the Government.

We congratulate Senator CONKLING on this victory over an attempted wrong to gratify personal prejudice and hate. We rejoice in his triumph for the reason that it is the triumph of right and justice over attempted proscription and injustice. It is a vindication of the laws of genuine civil service, and a rebuke to those who have trampled on its principles for unjustifiable ends.

It shows that the Senate of the United States stands as a bulwark against wrong and a safeguard of the right, and cannot be used for the purpose of gratifying individual malevolence. Democrats, in several instances, asserted their sense of right by breaking away from party ties and securing the accomplishment of what they regarded to be just under the circumstances.

In this matter Senator CONKLING has fought a great and successful battle for the right, and he has won. Those who have provoked this encounter and have measured weapons with New York's Senator have, no doubt, ere this learned that they have not in this controversy aroused an adversary unworthy of their steel.

Republican Duty.

It has been very kindly and gently intimated to us that the NATIONAL REPUB-LICAN, as a Republican journal, is too free and outspoken in its criticisms of a Republican administration. We do not think so. We think with the President that "he serves his party best who serves his country best."
 The public interest is first to be considered, and party interest to be sustained only as it subserves the public good.

The NATIONAL REPUBLICAN has enlisted and does battle under the Republican standard because it firmly believes that the future welfare of the nation centers in Republican principles and policy. Actuated by such a sense of duty it will continue according to the best of its abilities to contend for the prosperity and supremacy of that organization. It will contend for honest government—for honest money—for a preservation of implicit faith in the discharge of all public debts and obligations, great or small—for the equal rights of all the people before the law, and for a just and impartial administration of national affairs, so that all the American people may be happy in a trust that all their rights and interests are being respected by their rulers in every department of the Government.

While we love the Republican party, because we revere and confide in the justice of its principles and general aims, we have not that blinding and syphantic zeal which would cloak a wrong or brook the violation of clearly defined law or duty on the part of a Republican President or Cabinet Minister, or any other Federal official, who has attained to position under Republican confidence and support. To do so would be a violation of Republican faith and common honesty. We are not of those who think the President or his Ministers can do no wrong. Neither can we consent to hold a party relation which demands that we shall hide those errors and wrongs incident to human judgment when they are discovered. The Republican articles of faith demand honesty, purity, and justice at the hands of every official who is placed in position under its influence and power, and if the Republican press, which takes the position of sentinel on the walls of party, fails to rebuke the wrong as well as to applaud the right, when it becomes apparent, it is untrue to its mission. Hence, if the policies of the President or the official acts of his Cabinet Ministers do not, in our judgment, accord with Republican principles and the rules and requirements of right, we shall criticize and rebuke them plainly and fearlessly with the purpose merely of securing a change and reform.

The welfare of the country demands this, and what is good for the nation is best for the party whose cause we advocate. It is no part of independent journalism to hide the faults of political friends and magnify those of the other side, but whenever a fault is discovered anywhere in any party to antagonize it fearlessly but justly, with a view to early correction and public benefit. In whatever we see in the present Administration that is to be commended we shall cheerfully and gladly yield to it a hearty approval. But if its policies or measures fail to square by Republican principles or the public welfare, we shall, as we have done heretofore, interpose a fearless dissent, and stand firmly in defense of the right, as we understand it; and in this we feel that we are serving the Republican interest in the future more notably than we can in any other way, though the task may not be entirely grateful to our feelings and tastes. In all this we have no ends to answer save those which relate to public benefit.

Not Yet Happy.

The Raleigh (N. C.) Observer, which is among the most respectable and candid Southern organs of the South, is not disposed to make a MARK TAPLEY of itself and be happy under the most adverse circumstances; but, on the contrary, assimilates more in mood to Poe's Raven, which croaked "Evermore!" We took occasion a few days since to extract from its own columns a paragraph which foretold, with prophetic solemnity, that "the negro race would come to a comparison of the white race, and it referred to 'its fate as being fixed beyond a question.' We took occasion to suggest some of the agencies by which its fate is 'being fixed beyond a question,' in reply to which it takes occasion—not to disprove the justice of our suggestions—but to lay asunder and foolhood to our charge. We reiterate the truth that the negro race has been depleted by unlawful and brutal agencies, and we do this from no spirit of "pure consciousness" as it intimates, but for the reason that we believe it to be true, and feel that it is a pity it is true. To show that we are wrong it produces a report which it says represents two hundred colored men from all sections of the State, which is rather rosy in its complexion. It is very carefully expressed and was evidently written under the dread of the inevitable consequences to themselves, if the whole truth should be told. It speaks of the obstacles that have been in the way of harmony among the masses of North Carolina and the South generally. It says: "Our people have been discouraged in the effort to acquire and benefit themselves of their own." They do not dare not say what has caused these "obstacles" and "discouragements." But they are made now to say "many have been the prayers of the good people of this and all other States that prosperity, harmony and enterprise would again bless this country of ours." This prayer meets with a hearty amen from every Christian heart in the whole country, North, South, East and West. We are disposed to give our Raleigh contemporary the benefit of the material points in this report, for malignant as it seems to regard our efforts, we can say from our very heart that no one will exceed us in satisfaction when the day shall come that brings peace, prosperity and happiness to all the people of North Carolina. We are too proud of our common country not to wish for the day when the blot of outlaws, inhumanity, injustice and brutality shall be wiped from its fane. The report further says:

Never have the colored people of this State been so greatly encouraged to purchase lands and build themselves comfortable mansions and be happy in this country as to-day.
 Agricultural enterprises is being encouraged; education is becoming prominent in the minds of all good men of both races in North Carolina. The State has taken in hand the education of teachers for our race. One thing in this direction is quite gratifying, and that is that Gov. Z. VANCE has been the leader in this grand work of educating our people.
 And the Governor could not have introduced a more important measure—one more conductive to the elevation of our race and harmony of the people generally in North Carolina. We think that the days of yore are fast returning to the old North State. Enterprises in the way of manufactures, and the prospects for the material advancement of our people are good, and the relative value of money in the two countries, he will be enviously wealthy at home.

Miss LYDIA THOMPSON and troupe, at the Eagle Theatre, are making extraordinary pro-gres in their new and original play, "The King of the Mountains." It is a play of the highest order, and is being received with great success. The troupe is composed of the best actors and actresses of the day, and is well known to the public. The play is a drama of the highest order, and is being received with great success. The troupe is com-

THE Rev. John D. Morris played Macbeth under the auspices of the Baltimore Young Men's Association, and received a very successful reception. The play was well received, and the audience was very large. The play was JOHN PHILIP STONES, an actor and dramatist of some note, died last Friday evening of consumption, in the thirty-third year of his age. There is perhaps no time when a woman looks less like an angel than when she is walking on her heels through a mud puddle.

 RICHMOND recently pitched a supper across the floor. He will be quarrelling with his mother-in-law. It was a full-grown supper or only a broth of a boy?

SENATOR DENNIS, of Maryland, has returned from a brief visit to the East. He has been very successful in his mission, and has secured the support of the people of the Eastern Shore of Maryland. He is generally in favor of the silver bill.

JOHN H. BARNES, a member of a traveling dramatic company, accidentally shot himself in the head during a rehearsal at the Washington Theatre. He is now recovering from his wounds, and is expected to return to his company in a few days.

ARCHIBALD FORBES received a donation of $2,000, in addition to his stipulated remuneration, from the proprietors of the London News on his recent return from the seat of war.

GRANT GRAY, a member of the National Academy of Sciences, has been elected to the position of Secretary of the Academy. He is a distinguished naturalist, and has been very successful in his career. He is now residing in the city of Washington.

THE King of Württemberg has directed his minister to present to the Imperial German Society of Cincinnati three specimens of what are known as Axis deer, a species said to be exceedingly rare.

Ben Yot has gone back to China after having been in the United States for some time. He is a very successful merchant, and has accumulated a large fortune. He is now returning to his native land to spend the remainder of his life.

MR. BOUTWELL has been looking over the ground, and, as a result of his observations, predicts that the silver bill will pass over the top of the mountain. He is a very successful politician, and has been very successful in his career. He is now residing in the city of Washington.

THE number of newspapers published and sold in Germany, according to the Printing Trade, amounts to 2,300,000 per annum. Of these, 1,500,000 are sold in the German Empire, and 800,000 are sold in the other parts of Germany.

A CLEVELAND widow has had three hundred dollars. She has on hand a law-suit to break the will of her late husband. She is a very successful merchant, and has accumulated a large fortune. She is now residing in the city of Cleveland.

IT IS SAID that Mr. Charles Nordhoff receives from the Herald a salary of $10,000 a year, and a very large bonus. He is a very successful journalist, and has been very successful in his career. He is now residing in the city of New York.

HON. HILARY A. HERRBERT is the proudest man of the Alabama Congressional delegation.
 He walks with head erect and says, with his pleasant countenance beaming with happiness all the while, "I am the best of the best." He is a very successful politician, and has been very successful in his career. He is now residing in the city of Alabama.

THE NINETEEN AND NINE. By Elizabeth C.
 Claydon. With illustrations by Robert W. C.
 Claydon. Published by Wm. T. Dana, D. Lathrop & Co., Boston, Mass.

THE NINETEEN AND NINE is the touching story of a young man and woman, who, in the face of all obstacles, have managed to get on their feet. It is a story of love, of sacrifice, and of the triumph of the human spirit. It is a story that will interest all who read it. It is a story that will stay with you long after you have closed the book. It is a story that will give you a new view of life, and a new appreciation of the human race. It is a story that will make you a better man, and a better woman. It is a story that will make you a more useful citizen, and a more patriotic patriot. It is a story that will make you a more loving parent, and a more loving child. It is a story that will make you a
